EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Samuel M. Freund on 5/13/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 12: line 25 (paragraph (d)), replace "means" with --a tab extending into the first cavity perpendicular to the long dimension and located toward the rearward end of the handle--.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-18 are allowed because the prior art fails to disclose or suggest a surgical scalpel having a spring-actuated retractable blade comprising in combination with other limitations of the claims: In regard to claims 1-6, a tab extending into the first cavity perpendicular to the long dimension of an elongated handle; In regard to claims 7-11, a third window being closest to the rearward end of the handle and a tab which extends into the cavity; In regard to claim 12-18, a tab extending into the first cavity perpendicular to the long dimension of an elongated handle for engaging and reversibly immobilizing a slide when the slide is located in its rearwardmost position in the handle.

Art Unit: 3731

Platts discloses a surgical scalpel having a spring-actuated retractable blade comprising an elongated handle having cavity, a first side having an elongated window, a second window, a first tab, a second tab extending into the cavity, a surgical blade, a slide member and coil spring. However, Platts fail to disclose another tab/third tab and third window as claimed. The purpose for the third tab and third window are the improvements of the surgical scalpel having a spring actuated retractable blade as briefly indicated in the present specification page 2, line 13-18 and through out the specification.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
